

ICE (IN CASE of EMERGENCY):

If you carry a mobile phone, make sure you store an emergency contact under ICE in the phone book ICE stands for In Case of Emergency, and can be used by ambulance staff to find out information about you if you are injured and can't speak to them. If you can, try to make sure that the person you choose can speak English.