

English language requirements.

You must have a good standard of spoken English to work with us, and you must be able to read a little English for your own health and safety. Signage in the workplace and instructions will be in English. We expect you to learn more if you want promotion! We are able to provide details of English classes in the area (this is often free).