

Criminal records.

You will be asked to declare that you have no criminal record. Meridian and its clients reserve the right to make checks in the UK and in other countries regarding criminal records. Should you not declare any criminal record and we find out later, you could lose your work without notice.

