

Local induction information.

North Lincolnshire is 272km from London and near to the cities of Hull (30km) and Leeds (65km). Scunthorpe is a largely industrial town, famous for the Corus steelworks (formerly British Steel), which is still the largest employer in the area.

The population of Scunthorpe is 70,000 and has a large multi-cultural mix.

Scunthorpe has all the amenities you would expect to find in any town in the UK, including shopping centres, cinema, bars, restaurants and leisure centres. And it has a pretty good football team!

Police:

Dial 999 or 112 to get the police in an emergency.
